

CRUELTY OF CHOICE

We suffering. Too much choice to decide.
Life is so cruel if we're not supplied.

We suffering. Drowning in too much boredom.
Where's our gadget? That's important.

Outstanding ignorance – that's what we're standing for.
And zero tolerance – don't ask for more.
Our timeless elegance in complaining
is about the cruelty of choice.

We suffering. Too much choice to be happy.
What is the truth? We are sappy.

Outstanding ignorance – that's what we're
standing for.
And zero tolerance – don't ask for more.
Our timeless elegance in complaining
is about the cruelty of choice...

... the capitalistic noise, ...
... the empty sound of your voice.

It's too much choice.
It's too much choice.
