

SAVE AND KILL

No gain without losing.
No losing without abusing.
Some cash is the price of pride.
No, the future won't shine bright.

So tell me what's your price?
Everybody got's a little vice...

One dollar saves somebody.
The same dollar kills somebody else.

Our belly is getting fatter.
Shameless. We're getting better.
Exploitation is not a diet.
And poverty is no human right.

So think about your price...

One dollar saves somebody.
The same dollar kills somebody else.

One dollar, one dollar, one dollar,
one dollar will be our fall.
