

Tick Tack Timemachine

We use and got used
Never thinking to refuse.
But we're not amused.
And one day it will burn our fuse.

I'm not gonna take it again...
I am awake. This life is a fake. I am awake.

It's our generation in a tick tack timemachine.
We're a teenage waste sensation.
Grow up from the american dream!
Grow up, Grow up, Grow up...! It's time to stop.

We're totally lost.
A society in deep deep frost
demanding for trust
into a teenage ghost.

I'm not gonna take it again...
I am awake. This life is a fake. I am awake.

It's our generation in a tick tack timemachine.
We're a adults in temptation.
Grow up from the american dream!
Grow up, Grow up, Grow up...! It's time to stop.

Nothing to loose, nothing to win.
And we don't believe anymore it's a sin.
